ALEXANDER ALLIANCE GERMANY

ALEXANDER TECHNIQUE

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

The Alexander Alliance Germany is an international, cross-generational community/school for the training of teachers of the Alexander Technique and for the promotion of personal growth. As an international school we have sister schools in Japan and the United States.

Over the past 40 years, the Alexander Alliance has offered a solid yet flexible educational model that also offers employed people the opportunity to become Alexander Technique teachers. In addition to our training, we also offer a personal development program that extends over a period of 2 years (Level I). Each year, six weekends take place in Germany close to Hamburg. The Personal Development Program starts with a weekend in November/December. The costs amount to EUR 1.680,- per year and are to be paid in October or by arrangement in instalments.
