POST CONGRESS POTLUCK

a bring and share party with the riches of the week

10 and 11 August 2025

Before we return to our daily lives after a busy week at the congress, we want to share our experiences of the congress days with AT colleagues in a relaxed setting in the format of the Sharing Lab

- gather, sort, let settle and weave together
- hear about the interesting experiences of others, what inspires them and what they doubt
- find out how these new insights can influence our own personal studies and practices and how we can constructively move forward with them.

We look forward to welcoming everyone who wants to engage in a lively exchange in an inclusive, non-hierarchical space.
